

RECOVERY FRIENDLY WORKPLACE MAINE

The Maine RFW Program is administered in partnership with the State of Maine by:

BACKGROUND

- Recovery Friendly Workplace Initiative originated in New Hampshire in 2018, now in 35 states and Canada
- Championed by businesses and employers who wanted to shift their culture to support employees impacted by Substance Use Disorder (SUD)

WHAT WE OFFER

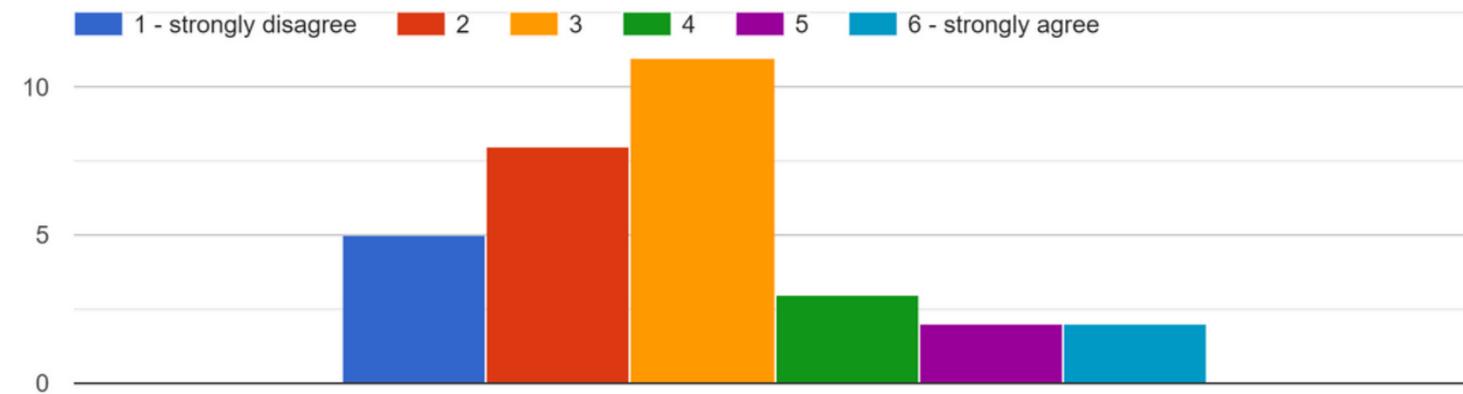

- Tailored engagement model
- Access to statewide and local resources
- Support for employees and their loved ones
- Trainings about SUD and SUD-related topics
- A network of community and state partners
- Tools and materials for management
- Ongoing support to adapt to the needs of your community

RFW TRAINING MODULES

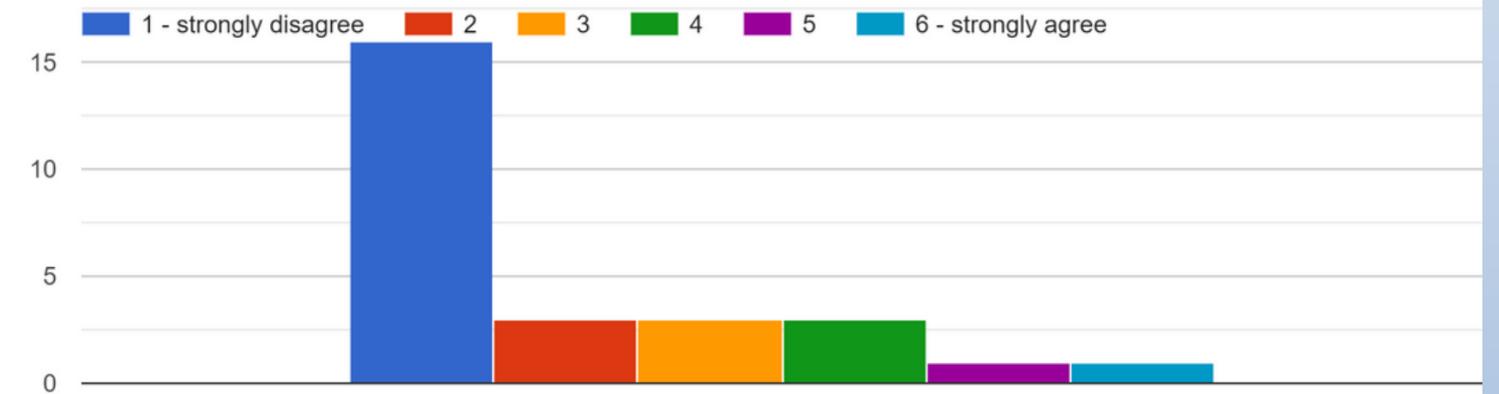

- I. Substance Use Disorder 101
- II. Opioid Overdose Response
- III. Recovery 101
- IV. Growing Your Recovery Friendly Workplace

PRE- AND POST-TRAINING SURVEY RESULTS

I believe "substance abuser" is an appropriate term.

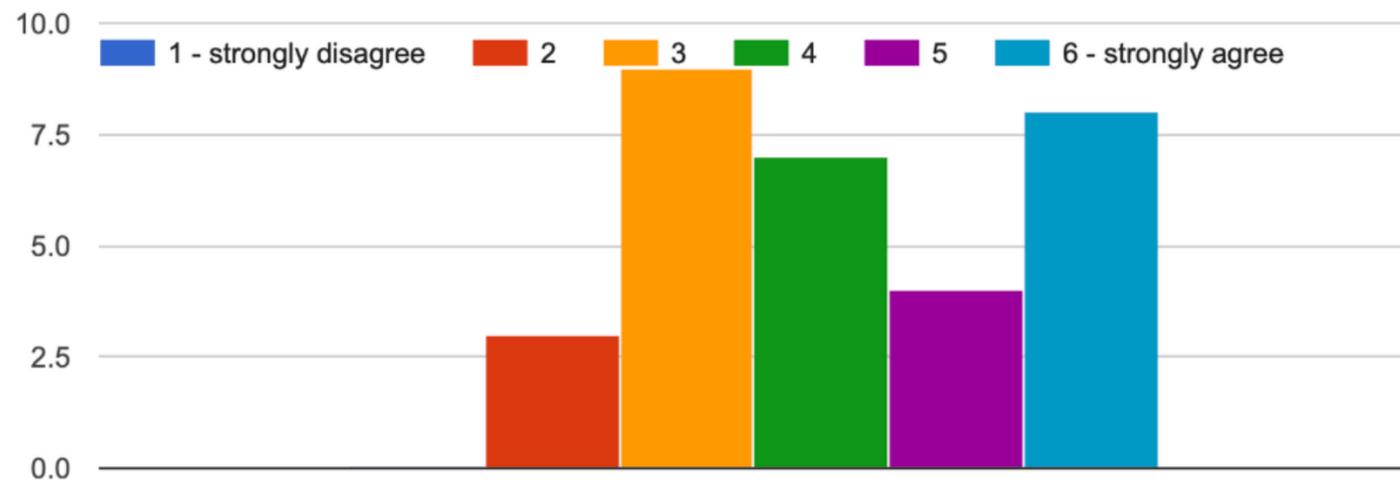

I believe "substance abuser" is an appropriate term.

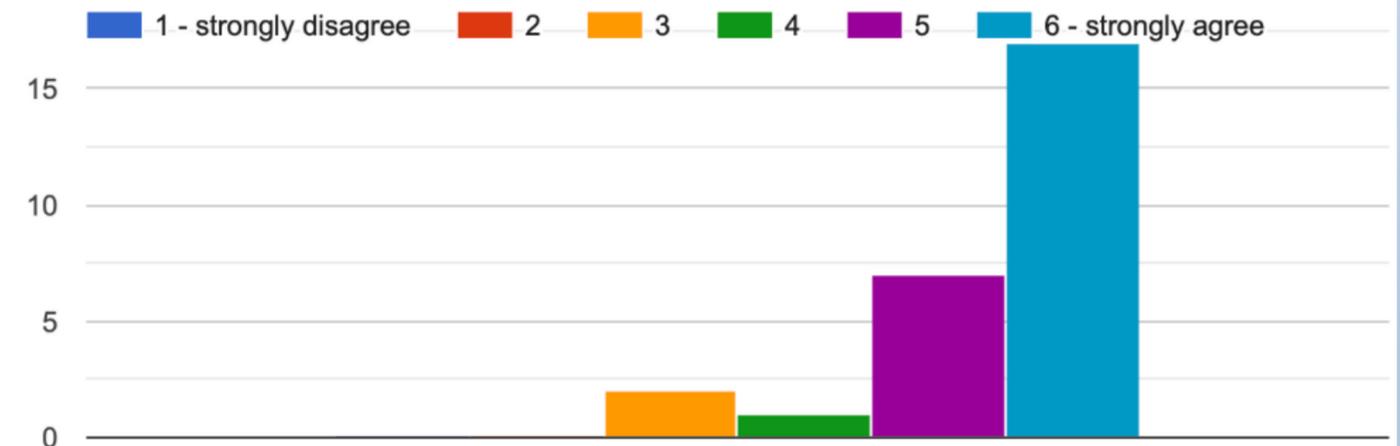

PRE- AND POST-TRAINING SURVEY RESULTS

I can identify at least 3 risk factors associated with developing a substance use disorder.

I can identify at least 3 risk factors associated with developing a substance use disorder.

DESIGNATED BUSINESSES

RFW PROCESS

Getting Started

- Letter of Interest
- Orientation
- Declaration
- Designation

Program Fundamentals

- Share Information & Resources
- Education & Training (4)
- Connection to RCCs

Additional Benefits

- Statewide Community of Practice
- Community-Based Activities
- Supplemental Trainings

REACH OUT

OUR WEBSITE
www.rfwmaine.org

CONTACT US
info@rfwmaine.org

